Southern suns and sky blue water,
Smile upon you Alma mater
Mistress of this fruitful land.
With all knowledge at your hand.
Always just to honor true.
All our love we pledge to you.
Alma Mater, stand forever
On Biscayne's wondrous shore.

As you prepare to begin life at the U, you will share many similar experiences with other students starting with 'Cane Kickoff. Events such as 'Canes Take Flight, orientation group meetings, and the President's Celebration for New Students are designed to give you an exciting introduction to the University of Miami and promote a common experience for incoming students. At the same time, we encourage you to tailor your orientation experience to your own personal needs and preferences.

Your five-day 'Cane Kickoff experience will be comprised of programs designed for all incoming students, events related to your undergraduate School, and additional activities tailored to your specific interests. Please pay particular attention to REQUIRED EVENTS as these are critical curricular and co-curricular offerings that are mandatory. We also strongly encourage you participate in optional events in order to make the most of your 'Cane Kickoff experience.

Please note that family members generally attend separate sessions from students because sessions are designed to meet each group's particular needs and interests. Everyone on campus, including our 'Cane Kickoff orientation staff, is excited to help you learn all you need to know about being a student at the U and will assist you by offering information and support to make the transition as seamless as possible.

We look forward to working with you during this exciting time. Welcome to the U!
Check in for 'Cane Kickoff at the Shalala Student Center

Check in to your Residential College if you are living on campus

Experience UM sessions allow new students to explore the many opportunities available at UM. Some sessions are offered multiple times. Attend as many of these sessions as you can, as they will provide useful information for a successful college experience.

Experience UM sessions are meant to be interactive and educational. Sessions will be formatted based on one of the three categories below. Choose the format and topics that feel right to you!

EXPLORE
In these sessions, students will get to explore their interests through interactive panelists, roundtables, and discussions. These sessions are meant to create dialogue and conversations on specific topics.

ENGAGE
In these unique sessions, students will engage through experiential learning and hands-on experiences. These sessions are intended to have students engaging in day-to-day activities they would have as a student.

ENHANCE
In these traditional sessions, students will be able to enhance their knowledge on a specific subject. These will be presentation-style sessions offering informative insight and resources for new students.

10:00 am - 12:00 pm
New Student Orientation Sessions
Your Orientation Fellow will provide you with your schedule for the following mandatory rotating sessions split between Thursday and Saturday.

Diversifying Your College Experience
The undergraduate student body at UM is one of the most diverse in the country. What can you learn from the people you are about to meet? This engaging session will introduce you to the diversity that surrounds you both on campus and in the community.

Maintaining U
You will participate in roundtable discussions, activities, and individual reflections to learn more about mental wellness. Explore your individual and collective power while striving toward creating closer connections with one another. Walk away with skills, knowledge, and campus resources to help you better cope and maintain your wellness.

So What’s All the Buzz About?
What are the real effects of drug use? How do you identify if you or your friends are intoxicated? Follow your Orientation Fellow through five rotating activities to learn about social responsibility around alcohol and other drugs.

Theatre in Action: Bystander Intervention
This isn’t your average theatre performance - you could make a difference and be the star! In this highly interactive session, actors will invite students to the stage to learn how to intervene in sensitive situations while learning about campus resources, preventing gender violence, and looking out for your fellow ’Canes.
SATURDAY, AUGUST 19
