WELCOME

Messages from University of Miami leaders to the families of incoming students:

On behalf of the faculty, staff, and current students, I am pleased to welcome you to the University of Miami family.

I hope to see you at the 'Cane Kickoff orientation program and embark, together, upon an exciting and transformational journey at the U. This Family Guide will help to acquaint you with services and resources available in academics, campus life, and wellness. We strive to support our students' intellectual development and personal growth and ensure that their experience as a 'Cane is rewarding, supportive, and safe.

As one of the leading teaching and research institutions in the world, the University of Miami offers an environment that is stimulating and challenging. We encourage students to aim for scholarly achievements, strive for mutual respect and appreciation for others, and serve their community meaningfully. Our student body is vibrant and diverse, representing every state in the nation and many countries and nationalities around the globe, and our surroundings are distinguished by the natural beauty and cultural vitality of South Florida.

As we approach our centennial in 2025, we are building on the proud traditions of academic excellence, relevant service, exemplary engagement, and hemispheric and global reach that are the continued aspirations of the University of Miami. You have entrusted your loved one to us, and we want you to know that we are committed to helping each of our students succeed.

Along with my wife, Dr. Felicia Knaul, I look forward to greeting you on campus during Family Weekend and at other events throughout the year.

With my best wishes,

Dr. Julio Frenk
President

Welcome to the Miami Hurricane family!

To make the transition to college life meaningful and successful, this Family Guide is a resource for you and an introduction to the University and the UM experience. Inside, you will find comprehensive information about the range of campus resources, support services, activities, and programs that will help students make the most of college – both personally and academically. We hope you will join us for Family Weekend and other major events listed in the calendar.

Our team of administrators and faculty members is committed to fostering the best experience for your student and you. Our goal is to help our students begin their college experience well-informed and well-grounded. During their time, they will be challenged as we strive to prepare them for success post-graduation, but support is always around the corner. Please do not hesitate to contact us should you have any questions or concerns. You can reach Dr. Green at 305-284-2006 or Dr. Whitely at 305-284-4922. We look forward to personally meeting you and your student at the 'Cane Kickoff orientation program and Family Weekend.

Welcome to the U!

ACADEMIC SUPPORT

Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost
provost.miami.edu | 305-284-3356 | provost@miami.edu

Oversees and coordinates academic programs, including both teaching and research, and advancing the educational mission and core values of the University of Miami.

School and College Deans' Offices

Each school and college has a Deans' office for undergraduate students that is responsible for its respective faculty and administration. Family members may call a specific Deans' office for information about academic programs or requirements, how students can change from one school or college to another, or about the transferability of summer courses from another institution.

Academic Advising

All students are assigned an academic advisor within the particular school or college. These advisors help students map out their chosen program of study, support their course registration, narrow their choice of a minor, and apprise them of requirements yet to be fulfilled.

A number of undergraduate programs have peer counselors, usually upper-class students, who act as mentors to incoming first-year students.

Dean of Students Office

doso.studentaffairs.miami.edu | 305-284-5353 | doso@miami.edu

Supports students by guiding them to responsible decision-making through a variety of programs and resources.

DOSO oversees six primary units: Student Conduct, Greek Life, the Sandler Center for Alcohol and Other Drug Education, Honor Council, Veteran Student Services, and the Chaplains Association.

Student Conduct - Student Rights and Responsibilities

doso.studentaffairs.miami.edu/student-conduct

Outlines the rights of all students and lists important policies and procedures that apply to all students' conduct through the Dean of Students Office.

Title IX - Sexual Assault Prevention, Education and Response

miami.edu/itsonus

The University provides education and training to identify and prevent sexual misconduct; and to coordinate the University's response to, and investigation and resolution of, sexual misconduct complaints.

Honor Code and Honor Council

doso.studentaffairs.miami.edu

All students are responsible for reading, understanding, and upholding the University of Miami Honor Code. The Honor Code specifically covers four main areas including cheating, plagiarism, collusion, and academic dishonesty. The Undergraduate Honor Council consists of undergraduate students, who investigate allegations of academic dishonesty.

Non-Discrimination Policy

It is the policy of the University of Miami that no person within the jurisdiction of the University shall, on the basis of race, religion, color, sex, age, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, veteran status, or national origin, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination or harassment (including all forms of sexual harassment and sexual violence) under any program or activity of the University, regardless of whether such program or activity occurs on-campus or off-campus.

SAFETY AND SECURITY

University of Miami Police Department and Security miami.edu/police

The University of Miami is dedicated to providing a safe and secure environment for all members of the University community who study, research, live, and work at any of its campuses. Each campus has its own department responsible for all safety and security. The University of Miami Police Department (UMPD), a professional law enforcement agency that utilizes State of Florida-certified police officers and is supplemented by a contracted security guard service, services the Coral Gables campus. The Miller School and Rosenstiel School campuses utilize professional security teams directly managed by the University. The City of Miami Police Department and Miami-Dade County Police Department, respectively, provide police services to these campuses.

Blue-Light Telephones

These phones are marked with reflective lettering and a blue light to aid in daytime and nighttime identification. The phones can be used to contact UM Police or security in both emergency and non-emergency situations.

U Guardian

miami.edu/uguardian

When calling UMPD via the app's one-button call feature, information, including GPS location and relevant medical information, will be sent to the dispatch center. There is also a virtual escort feature where users can notify their designated contact that they are traveling from one destination to another.

Thunder, UMPD's highly trained K9 officer, spends most of his time in the center of campus making rounds to various buildings and greeting students, faculty and staff.

Crime Prevention/Safety Programming

Several crime prevention and safety programs are designed and conducted by the UM Police and Security Departments to educate students, faculty and staff on a variety of safety topics, including personal safety, identity theft, fake IDs, underage drinking, vacation safety, and personal property security.

Crime Advisories

Published in the rare instance that a serious incident occurs on campus and there is a possible continuing threat to the general community's safety.

Security in the Residential Areas

All of the residential areas on the Coral Gables Campus are equipped with a 24-hour security system that grants electronic access to the living areas with a validated 'Cane Card. Housing and Residential Life Safety and Security works closely with the UM Police Department on this access.

Safety Escort Services

Provided by the UM Police and Security Departments to all students, faculty, staff and visitors on the Coral Gables and Miller School campuses, 24-hours a day. To request a safety escort on the Coral Gables campus, contact UMPD Dispatch at 305-284-6666 or use any blue-light telephone. To request a safety escort on the Miller School campus, call Security at 305-243-7233 or use any blue-light telephone.

Safe Ride

An on-demand transit program managed by the UM Parking and Transportation Department, which provides safe travel on and around the Coral Gables campus for students from Sunday to Thursday evenings, 10pm to 3am. Students may call 305-298-6128 to get a ride between the Coral Gables campus and residential areas that border the Coral Gables campus during those listed times.

EMERGENCY AND HURRICANE PREPAREDNESS

Office of Emergency Management

prepare.miami.edu | 305-284-8005 | oem@miami.edu

The central hub for any up-to-date emergency/response procedures, located on the Coral Gables campus with a full-time emergency manager on the Medical and RSMAS campuses. In the event of an emergency, the University of Miami Comprehensive Emergency Management Plan will be activated to ensure the safety of all campuses. Plans can be viewed at prepare.miami.edu.

Emergency Guide

miami.edu/emergency-guide

Contains recommended specific action guidelines for students to take during various campus emergencies. Hard copies of the guide are strategically placed throughout each campus including in the residence halls; in addition, the information is accessible online.

Emergency Notification Network

A comprehensive communications solution that allows the University to quickly disseminate urgent emergency alerts through multiple communications mediums.

Subscribe to ENN

Family members are encouraged to subscribe to receive ENN alerts via facebook.com/UMiamiENN and twitter.com/UMiamiENN. To receive ENN text alerts, text "UMiamiENN" to 226787 from your mobile phone. During a time of crisis, the University's Emergency Information Hotline is also activated at 1-800-227-0354.

Hurricane Evacuation Information

Every family member and student should watch the University's hurricane preparedness video by visiting miami.edu/hurricane-prepare. As storms approach, the University will send out emails to all students and conduct meetings with resident students providing them with more specific instructions. If an evacuation is ordered, all events and classes will be canceled and no one will be allowed to stay on campus.

Emergency Contact and Evacuation Information

Students must always keep their emergency and contact information up-to-date in Canelink under the "Personal Information" tab. Families are also encouraged to discuss an evacuation plan with their student in the event of a hurricane and inform the University by entering it into their Canelink.

President's 100 give tours to new and prospective 'Canes and their families at the Coral Gables Campus, educating them about campus life and University services.

ENROLLMENT AND FINANCES

Office of Student Account Services

miami.edu/osas | 305-284-6430 | studentaccounts@miami.edu

Responsible for collecting and processing University tuition and fee payments, issuing student refunds, and distributing student educational tax data. Billing and online payment information can be found on CaneLink under the Finances tab.

Parent Proxy/Delegate Access

CaneLink provides the option for students to grant their parent(s) or other individuals, known as delegates or proxies, to access to their information regarding financial aid, billing/payments, and grades/transcript information. Students control the information that is shared and can make changes anytime.

Office of Student Financial Assistance and Employment

finaid.miami.edu | 305-284-6000 | ofas@miami.edu

Advisors are available to assist students and families throughout the entire financial aid and student employment process. UM provides financial assistance that recognize both financial need and academic achievement. Eligibility for need-based financial assistance is determined through an in-depth analysis of a family's financial strength as reported on the FAFSA, CSS PROFILE, and tax documents.

Financial Assistance

Need-based grants, academic scholarships, student or parent loan(s), and/or student employment are all considered part of financial assistance. Students seeking financial assistance must apply every year and must monitor CaneLink and their University email for deadlines, reminders, and outstanding checklist items.

Student Employment

miami.edu/jobx

There are two major work programs: Federal Work Study (students must be eligible based on federal financial aid criteria) and the Student Assistant Program (open to all registered University of Miami students and offering a variety of part-time positions on and off-campus). All students planning to work while at UM must bring the appropriate documentation for employment eligibility verification established by the Department of Homeland Security, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services.
